Dining Out

Eat, Drink & Be Merry

More Than Just Dessert
Tong Shui at 54 Zion Road is a kopi tiam with over 300 snacks for hungry families like toast with peanut butter and condensed milk, and chicken wings with melted cheese. Prices start at $1.88.

Chic Food
If you've dined at Whitebait & Kale, you'd have enjoyed the feel-good Western cuisine served in smart-casual surroundings. Don't miss specials like coconut-crusted prawns, crostini of smoked mussels on herb cream cheese and grilled free-range veal chop. There are set menus and Sunday brunch too. Call 6333 8697.

Big O Delights

Fans of Big O at Wheelock Place will be glad to discover new dishes with old favourites like pan-fried cod fish and roasted chicken ravioli. The newcomers – pan-fried prawns, crispy fried tofu and portobello mushroom burger are accompanied by ice-cream cakes. Prices from $3.50. Call 6737 8472.

Tried & Tested

Facial Blotters

- CLEAN&CLEAR OIL CONTROL FILM – GRAPEFRUIT, $4.50
I love the fresh scent of this. The sheets feel cool and smooth against the skin and don't tear. They effectively clear almost all traces of oil when I blot.
- KOSE OIL BLOTTER, $4
This is great value for money – one blotter sheet is big enough to draw all the oil out from the entire face. However, the sheets tend to tear during blotting.
- FANCL FACE PAPER, $10.50
The compact size is good for dainty evening bags. It is quite absorbent but I must use at least two sheets to effectively blot.
- PAUL & JOE BLOTTING PAPER, $19
This works like a pretty, practical accessory with its feminine packaging and big mirror. It's a good statement piece and the sheets do a good blotting job.

OUR TESTERS
